

Invitation to participate in the conference for
The Journal of Finance and Management in Public Services

23 June 2009 Manchester

CALL FOR PAPERS

We are pleased to invite researchers and academics to submit research papers for presentation at the next Journal of Finance and Management in Public Services conference. The culture of the conference is friendly and supportive; in recent years we have been fully subscribed so an early expression of interest is encouraged. The latest date for the submission of papers is the 22 May 2009. Contact john.webb@anglia.ac.uk for details or to advise of your intention to submit.

Proposals will be considered in the following areas: Accounting Education, Financial Reporting, Financial Management, Treasury, Taxation, Audit, Management and Strategy, Public Policy, Public Finance, Decision Making, Governance and Politics relating to Public Services in the UK and internationally. Papers may be in the form of completed research or progress papers.

The purpose of the Conference is to facilitate research through supportive debate and discussion, and the generation of ideas. In addition to experienced researchers we value contributions from new / inexperienced researchers and PhD / MA / MBA / MPA students Completed research papers will be considered for publication in the Journal of Finance and Management in Public Services.

In an exciting new development we are holding our 2009 conference at the CIPFA annual conference venue. Attendance at the JFMPS conference will cost £50 and as the conference closes you will be invited to join the presentation from the opening CIPFA key note speaker. As an attending academic you may make full use of the discounted CIPFA delegate rate of £225 and join their conference for the following two days.

Details of accommodation may be found at:

The Journal of Finance and Management in Public Services is published twice a year containing academic papers from a variety of public service management, finance and accountancy topics. All papers are double blind refereed from an international editorial board. The Journal publishes papers which are of interest to both the academic and practitioner communities and may relate to domestic or international practices. The JFMPS has an international readership, reaching both academics and practitioners. The Journal has a published ABS ranking. Details of the editorial policy and manuscript requirements will soon be available from our website www.acipfal.org or by e-mail to our editor at hcoombs@qlam.ac.uk.
