

Contents

Editorial: New cover, new publisher, same dedication Andrew Gray, Jane Broadbent and Michaela Lavender	3
Debate: The future of public administration—Serving beyond the predictable Jocelyne Bourgon	3
Debate: Delivering public services: Are we asking the right questions? Stephen P. Osborne	5
Debate: The return of the Westminster supermodel Michael Duggett	7
Debate: We just do not know: Healthcare expenditure trends Peter M. Jackson	9
Making widespread use of municipal bonds in Scotland? Stephen J. Bailey, Darinka Asenova and John Hood	11
Taking its toll: The private financing of roads in Spain Basilio Acerete, Jean Shaoul and Anne Stafford	19
Managing activity and expenditure in the new NHS market Russell Mannion and Andrew Street	27
Relationship marketing, relational capital and the future of marketing in public service organizations Kate McLaughlin, Stephen P. Osborne and Celine Chew	35
Public policy dilemma—Gender equality mainstreaming in UK policy formulation Karen Miller	43
Mentoring as a mechanism for improvement in local government Jane Atterton, Nicola Thompson and Terry Carroll	51
New development: Accountability in public partnerships— The case of Local Strategic Partnerships George Jones and John Stewart	59
New development: Scotland's Concordat—An assessment of the new financial framework in central–local relations Arthur Midwinter	65
New development: Fast track to Birmingham Tony Bolden and Reg Harman	71

IN THIS ISSUE:

THE WESTMINSTER SUPERMODEL

MUNICIPAL BONDS AND THE CREDIT CRUNCH

PFI

MENTORING

LOCAL GOVERNMENT